“And they will know that Almighty God is the Evident Truth.” (XXIV:25)

March 28, 2018.

Dear Mr. President Jimmy Carter,

It is in the worst of times that the best things happen.

You are right. We are in a chaos and must get ourselves out of it. There is no doubt that Almighty God helps those who help themselves. “He does not change the condition of a people unless they change themselves” But first we must agree on “How To”. The groundwork is there. We have agreed that there is one physics, one chemistry, one mathematics, one biology and every doctrine claims the truth. Thus what we are the closest to agree upon is The Truth. Our “Creator is The Evident Truth” This is a point missed by many or not emphasized as it should be. In whole heartedly submitting to It is our salvation. That has been the message from the beginning. It is in this chaotic atmosphere that we hope to, and actually have to revert to it again. A whole hearted submission and surrender to The Truth is a must. In what I read the word is repeated 227 times.

You would know better where else it is underscored. Religion without Truth is obviously meaningless. You are in a position to make people understand and come together. When the worship of The Truth enters our lives we will be on our way out of this mess. And most importantly we would have paved the way for our youth to be upright. It is because of our confusion that the youth are turning away from religion. Presently religion does not speak their tongue. They actually do not know what religion is. I wonder if teachers ever open their hearts and admit what they are uncertain of, what they are sure of and what they have been indoctrinated? Most find it convenient “to accept”, “to believe”. Belief has to be founded on absolute certainty. Can belief based on anything other than the truth be acceptable?

Those who claim and believe to be better than others always prove to be the worst.

To our young it should be obvious that Truth helps those who help themselves and that Truth means Justice, Rights, Reality, Facts.

Without Truth we will continue to worship images; imaginary or carved. That is one good reason not to pray with our eyes closed.

With Almighty God's help and guidance may you continue on the right course and lead others to follow your example.

Respectfully,
